

STOCKS TAKE ON FIRMER TONE IN LIVELY TRADING

Recovery of Olaa Accompanied By Advance of Other Securities On List

With sales of listed securities exceeding 6500 shares of stock and $39,000 in bonds, the local stock market assumed a much firmer and stronger tone today after the holiday.

Olaa was strong before the session and at the board session was in demand at $20.25 and Oahu was strong at $17.75. This was a rise of a full point during the day. McBryde was $13.25 and Ewa $32.25.

Generally the trading was more evenly divided among a larger number of securities than recently but with Olaa leading in activity.

Brokers, after the session, said indications were of a much better sentiment than has recently been exhibited and that whenever there was any material lowering of prices bidders came back into the market quickly to take advantage of opportunities afforded.

In limited securities mineral products was stronger. Honolulu oil sold at $3.50 and Eagle Copper was quoted down, and at $2.50—$2.60.

HEARING OF A. T. HENDERSON SET FOR SATURDAY

Plea is Reserved and Prisoner Released in Custody of His Counsel

When A. T. Henderson was called into the district court this morning to answer a charge of embezzlement in which The von Hamm-Young Company is the complainant, Attorney Frank E. Thompson appeared for him and asked that the complaint be placed upon the records and the case continued until July 8. Plea was reserved until then and Henderson was released in Thompson's custody.

The defendant spent the night at the city jail but looked bright and cheerful this morning. It is intimated that he will plead not guilty and fight the charge to a finish, although yesterday it was rumored he would admit guilt.

The complaint, signed by George W. Farr, treasurer of The von Hamm-Young Company, charges Henderson specifically with embezzlement of $85 on April 6 but it is rumored that the concern suspects Henderson of appropriating hundreds of dollars.

Attorney E. W. Sutton represents The von Hamm-Young Company and is assisting the prosecution.

Lazar Laceranu of North Attleboro was found guilty of arson in the superior court at New Bedford and was sentenced to state prison for not less than three nor more than five years.

COUNTY REVENUE $15,000 LOWER THAN EXPECTED

City Treasurer Says Amendments to Franchises Will Upset Calculations

Realizations of the county will be $15,000 less this half year than was expected, in the belief of D. L. Conkling, city treasurer. He received in the mail this morning a copy of the amendment to the franchises of the public utilities of the territory passed by Congress June 16, which provides that the per cent of the gross receipts now paid to the territorial treasurer shall be hereafter paid to the county treasurer. One phrase, which he states was changed in Congress, upsets the hope of the city of receiving about $15,000 in additional revenue this month. It reads "within one month after the expiration of each calendar year," and relates to the date of payment of the annual tax.

"Originally that phrase read 'within one month after the 30th day of June of each year,' Conkling says. 'That is how the franchises read now. The change means that the city and county will have to wait until January for the payment of this year's tax if the gas and electric companies want to hold it up that long. Then there will be a year and a half's tax due, from June of 1915 to January, 1917.'

SPEECH AGAINST JAPANESE MADE AT KAUALI, REPORT

Orator at Exercises Said to Have Charged Orientals Have Wrong Spirit

A sensational attack on "The Fallacy of the Melting Pot" was delivered at the Fourth of July celebration at Lihue, Kauai, by Rev. Charles D. Milliken, orator of the day, according to passengers returning on the Maui this morning.

"He denied that the races are blending in Hawaii," said one of them, "and to bear out his assertion told of an incident that occurred when he was teaching school several years ago."

Japanese pupils of the fifth grade at a patriotic celebration were interrogated by Milliken, who is now pastor of the Foreign church at Waimae, according to the story he told yesterday. He asked them first what they would do if the United States went to war.

"Fight!" they replied with one voice.

"Suppose it was the United States and Japan?" he asked. "Who would you fight for?"

"Japan!" they answered, as unanimously as before.

"Why then do you salute the flag and repeat the pledge of allegiance to the United States?" was his next question.

"Because you tell us to," he said they replied.

"That fellow citizen, shows the spirit of the Japanese in this territory," Milliken declared, according to the passenger who told the tale. "These children, too young to dissemble, revealed the spirit that prevails in their homes."

There were more than 5000 people assembled to hear the address and an angry murmur arose among the Japanese present, the passenger said. Those who gathered in argumentative groups with the haole afterwards pointed to the Japanese in the National Guard taking part in the celebration of the day as the best refutation of Milliken's assertions.

Trouble was expected for a few minutes during Milliken's speech while the muttering of Japanese in the audience was at its height, but quiet soon prevailed and Milliken left without being molested.

AD CLUB HOLDS BUSINESS TALK ON CONVENTION

Members of the Ad Club at luncheon at the Alexander. Young hotel today listened to a word of cheer from Harry Strange, now at the front, and voted his letter one that carried the spirit of brotherly love and progress with it. The plans for the Civic Convention were also discussed, and L. W. de Vis-Norton told of the preparations which were being made for the convention at Hilo.

Returning from a visit to Hilo, Norton stated that Hilo would be ready to extend the welcome hand to all, and announced that the citizens of that city had planned a night trip to the volcano for all of the members. Later a discussion was held. President Wallace R. Farrington read the letter from Harry Strange, former secretary of the club.

Plans for an orchestra to the Hilo convention was arranged when a new member of the committee made an announcement that work would begin at once to secure a number of musicians for the trip. This and the Ad Club minstrel show will be one of the features of the Ad Club's part in the convention.

President Farrington read a letter from Professor Vaughan MacCaughy of the College of Hawaii telling of his travels on the mainland. Another list of names of the members of the Ad Club who had paid their dues for this year was also read, which showed that about half the number had as yet failed to send in their year's dues to the treasurer.

CITY'S BUDGET, RAISES STILL IN, PASSES BOARD

The municipal budget passed third reading at a noon meeting of the supervisors and will become law as soon as signed by the mayor.

He declined to say this morning whether or not he intended to veto any of the items in it. "I want time to examine it more thoroughly before passing on it," he declared.

Discussion of the salary raises in the bill occupied more than half an hour at the meeting. Supervisor Horner voted against the bill because of the increases and was scored for his action by Supervisors Logan and Larsen. Supervisor Hatch declared that as long as the community demanded a subsidy "to pay for someone else's advertising" (referring to the Promotion Committee appropriation of $250 a month), he would not vote against the salary list as it stands in the budget.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY
(California)
Honolulu

The Fallacy of Paraffine Base: Eastern oil manufacturers have long extolled the superior virtues of paraffine-base motor oils. But Pacific Coast motorists have proved that Zerolene, made from selected California crude, asphalt-base, gave best results. Their experience is now supported by the testimony of international experts. Lieut. Bryan stated before the Am. Soc. of Naval Engineers: "Oils made from the asphalt-base crudes have shown themselves better adapted to motor cylinders, as far as their carbon-forming proclivities are concerned, than are paraffine-base Pennsylvania oils." Zerolene received highest competitive awards, San Francisco and San Diego Expositions. Dealers everywhere and at service stations and agencies of the Standard Oil Company.
